Pheasant Run Resort’s New Year’s Eve Party Gras Offers Entertainment for the Entire Family!

CHICAGO, IL – NOV. 4, 2014 – Ring in the New Year with Pheasant Run Resort’s Party Gras! With overnight accommodations on December 31st, and multiple celebration packages available for adults as well as children, Pheasant Run Resort promises a night to remember.

For the adults, all packages include access to the Party Gras with open bar from 9 p.m.- 1 a.m., a classic Champagne toast when the clock strikes 12 midnight, brunch the next morning and a late checkout. Rates begin at $299 per couple. A separate party for children of resort guests offers a festive night of pizza, pop and cookies, the Kids Klub supervisor will hand out goodie bags with candy and toys, and all children enjoy movies, games and crafts as well as a balloon drop at midnight for an additional $35 per child (ages 3 -11).

Premier adult packages combine all of the elements of the basic Party Gras package, and include entertainment options for an additional fee. Those who simply want an elegant meal before their party can enjoy a delicious feast in the St. Charles Ballroom before Party Gras for $399 per couple. Add dinner plus a comedy performance for $479 per couple, or choose dinner and the Fox Valley Repertory production of Christmas on Broadway for $499 per couple.

Executive Chef Tiffany Tooker pulls out all of the culinary stops with the New Year’s Eve party menu. Enjoy oysters, clams and black tiger shrimp from Pheasant Run’s fresh Seafood bar or main course dishes such as seared filet mignon, smoked turkey breast, and an assortment of Italian delights that include stuffed manicotti and wild mushroom ravioli. The exquisite selection of food will accompany this exciting celebration for friends and families to enjoy.
