Rise ‘N Shine with Jambalaya’s new Bourbon Street Breakfast Every Sunday

St. Charles, IL – August 3, 2016 -- On Sunday, August 7th, Pheasant Run’s lively Jambalaya restaurant introduces its new Bourbon Street Breakfast. Executive Chef Tiffany Tooker and her culinary team are preparing a fresh menu each weekend to replace the Garden Atrium’s Jazz Brunch previously offered.

"We’ve reinvented what we offer each weekend to meet our guests’ desires for a wonderful selection of house-made breakfast items that satisfy taste buds. It’s an affordable and delicious way to start your day," says Chef Tooker.

The new menus will feature home-cooked goodness with breakfast favorites such as eggs benedict and omelets made-to-order plus decadent new recipes including red velvet waffles. Guests will also enjoy freshly baked pastries and seasonal fruits and berries plus a chef’s selection at the carving station, a poached salmon display, artisanal cheese and antipasto selections.

Served from 9:00 a.m. through 1:00 p.m., the Bourbon Street Breakfast includes coffee, tea and freshly squeezed juices and costs $16.95/adults; $9.95 for youth 4-12; and children under 4 dine for free. The Bourbon Street Breakfast menu will vary each week and a sample menu could include:
